What are the ways for me to finance a property purchase?

There are several ways for you to finance your purchases. Basically, you can either use your CPF and/or loan from commercial banks/finance companies. Often, a combination of different types of loans and savings from your CPF is used. From 19 July 2005, the maximum housing loan for private properties and HDB flats should not exceed 90% of the purchase price or valuation of the property, whichever is lower. Bank Loans
